

Course No.9

Manager/Supervisor Seminar Course

Complies with CSA Standard B335-04 and MOL Guidelines

Recommended for: For Managers and Supervisors who are responsible for operators of lifting devices and for pedestrians working in the vicinity of equipment.

Objective: To ensure that the managers and supervisors are aware of their duties and responsibilities under the OHSA as it pertains to “Competency” and to be in a due-diligence position regarding accident prevention and loss control.

Benefits: Reduction in Incidents (which lead to accidents)
Reduction in WSIB claims
Reduction in Product and building damage
Reduction in Maintenance costs

Course Time: Theory: 4 hours Practical: As Required

Knowledge and skill to be acquired:

- Introduction, review of OHSA, Bill C45, CSA and MOL guidelines
- Safety in the workplace, and safety program
- Hazard identification and inspections
- Basic accident investigation
- Safety and requirements around lifting devices
- Fuel handling, storage and PPE
- Pre-shift inspections and lockout procedures
- Correct handling of materials, equipment, attachments
- Q/A

Theory and Practical Competence Evaluation:

Theory: N/A

Practical: Review pre-shift inspection on forklift or cranes etc. (If available)

A certificate of participation will be provided to the company along with any R.O.Training

